

Ewha International Co-ed Summer College

Why Ewha?

Founded in 1886, Ewha Womans University is Korea's first pioneering educational institution for women. It has since grown to become one of Asia's most prestigious universities, and over 3,000 students from more than 60 countries visit Ewha each year through various short- to long-term programs to experience Ewha's leading global infrastructure and quality education.

As a comprehensive research university, Ewha has 11 colleges and 15 graduate schools and over 500 courses taught in English every semester. The university's many internationally recognized research institutes encompass both traditional areas of strength - Law, Humanities, and Education - as well as new areas of excellence - Science, Technology, Engineering, Women's Studies, International studies, and Korean studies, and carry out research collaborations with partner universities worldwide.

With 25,000 students and 190,000 alumni, Ewha has a strong presence around the world and works hard to live up to its global reputation. The university is proud of its long history at the forefront of education in Korea and is determined to train tomorrow's leaders, equipping them with the skills and knowledge to make a difference in the world. In the 21st century, Ewha has become a truly global place to study and research, and to experience life in Korea.

Accommodation

The International House (I-House) and Graduate Student Dormitory (GSD) are on-campus housing facilities located very close to the Ewha ISC office in the Ewha Campus Complex (ECC). These state-of-the-art housing facilities for foreign students offer double and single rooms on a 'first-come-first-served' basis. The dormitories are co-ed, with each floor assigned to a single sex.

Due to high demand, students are recommended to apply for housing at the same time they apply for admission to the 2015 Ewha International Co-ed Summer College.

PEACE Buddies

Professional Ewhians At Cultural Exchange

Ewha ISC students will be in contact with Ewha PEACE buddies, a volunteer group of Ewha undergraduate students from their arrival at Incheon airport until the 'Farewell Ceremony' at the end of the program. As students of Ewha, PEACE buddies introduce international students to the campus and community, arrange special events, and help program participants take full advantage of life at Ewha and in Korea.

Questions concerning everyday life at Ewha and extra curricular activities organized by PEACE buddies should be reached at: ewhapeacebuddy@gmail.com. Each Ewha ISC student will receive an email from his or her designated PEACE buddy prior to the starting of a program.
